

Galvan Electrical Products

11th Annual Steak Promotion

Fun Facts

- Grilling steak became popular as a past time in the 1950's.
- The charcoal briquette was invented in the 1920's by Henry Ford with help from Thomas Edison.
- Most injuries from grilling result from the improper use of lighter fluid.

Details

- Promotion Dates:

For each U.S.A. electrical distributor serving the C/I or utility customer base that issues a purchase order to a "single destination" for immediate shipment valued at $2,700 or more between April 1st and June 30th, 2018. Galvan offers you four 6 oz. filet mignon from Omaha Steaks. Order in increments of $6,000 and receive three (3) gift certificates, $12,000 will get you a total of six (6) certificates, and so on. Do the math that adds up to a lot of beef!

Once order is placed, mail a copy of the qualifying order and a self addressed envelope to the following address:
